

Financial news for GPC dated on 2020-06-11: Shares of several consumer discretionary companies are trading lower following an increase in coronavirus cases in some US states that have reopened, leading to concerns of a second wave of the virus. A potential second wave could keep discretionary spending and economic activity low.

Financial news for GPC dated on 2020-06-10: Shares of several consumer discretionary companies are trading lower amid market weakness as investors await today's Federal Reserve decision and update on the state of the economy. Markets have sold off over the past few sessions following recent surge.

Financial news for GPC dated on 2020-06-03: Shares of several companies in the broader consumer discretionary space are trading higher as markets continue to gain on optimism over an economic reopening as well as a smaller-than-expected drop in nonfarm payrolls. The economy reopening could mean more consumer spending which is good for the sector.

Financial news for GPC dated on 2020-05-27: Shares of several consumer discretionary companies are trading higher amid economic optimism, stemming from some US states reopening businesses, an increase in mortgage demand figures and positive vaccine sentiment.

Financial news for GPC dated on 2020-05-26: Shares of several consumer discretionary companies are trading higher as equities rally on coronavirus vaccine hopes as well as a pickup in economic activity as some US states reopen businesses. A vaccine could mean a faster return to discretionary spending.
